TERMINALS OPENED

C. G. W. ROUNDHOUSE AND SHOPS
AT CONCEPTION JUNCTION.

SHOP COST $250,000

The Roundhouse Will Accommodate
Twenty Freight Locomotives—
Will Affect Ten Freight Crews.

The Chicago Great Western Terminals at Conception Junction were opened Wednesday. The News-Press of St. Joseph had the following to say about the new terminals:

The Chicago Great Western railroad's new $250,000 terminals, including roundhouse and shops, at Conception Junction, Mo., were opened today. A train carrying much of the equipment in the shops here was started at 1 o'clock today for Conception. Much new machinery has been installed there. Some of the employees here will be transferred and others will be taken from Des Moines and Kansas City. The change in terminals affects only the crews of ten freight trains, and practically all these will continue to live in St. Joseph.

The new terminals at Conception Junction include a round house with accommodations for twenty freight locomotives, coaling chutes, shops and eight miles of yard tracks. The terminals are south of the Wabash crossing in the Platte river valley.

Trainmaster Blunt and his entire office force will continue to operate all trains south of Des Moines from St. Joseph. The necessity for the change of the division point grew out of the enforcement of the sixteen-hour labor law. St. Joseph is sixty-four miles from Kansas City and fifty-six miles from Des Moines and trainmen working from Des Moines to St. Joseph were often laid out between the two towns, necessitating the sending of extra crews to bring in their train. On the other hand, crews from Kansas City to St. Joseph or vice versa, were paid for a 100-mile run, while only making sixty-four miles. To equalize the runs, it was necessary to locate the terminals at a point near the middle of the division.

Gifted Pianist Here.

Carleton Balfour, the gifted and cultured blind pianist of Kansas City, was in Maryville from Monday until Thursday, the guest of his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Spickerman, and family. He left for his home Thursday noon accompanied as far as Conception by his cousin, Miss Eva Spickerman. Mr. Balfour, it will be remembered, gave a recital in Maryville about two years ago that was indeed remarkable.

Mrs. J. C. Simmons and daughter, Miss Naomi, of Pickering, were shopping in the city Thursday.

Miss Phyllis Saylor will leave Friday evening for Trenton, Mo., to be in the guest of Miss Mary Ogden over Sunday. Miss Ogden is teaching in the public schools of that city. The school year will close in three weeks, when she will return to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ogden.

Judge Alton B. Parker tells this (his favorite) story of a young man in Savannah named Dubose, who invited his sweetheart to take a buggy ride with him. The young woman had a very fetching lip. When they reached a very lonesome bit of the road the young man announced: "This is where you have to pay toll. The toll is either a kiss or a squeeze." "Oh, Mr. Du Both!" exclaimed his companion.

"LEONAINIE"—BY J. WHITCOMB RILEY

James Whitcomb Riley successfully imitated Edgar Allan Poe, once upon a time, and fooled a lot of smart people.

We saw a collection of Riley's first poems the other day, that were written by the now world-wide famous poet in the summer of 1877, while he was employed as a reporter on the Anderson (Ind.) Democrat.

In the collection is his "Leonainie," which was written as the result of an assertion, then a wager, that came about in this way:

One evening, during the summer of 1877, while assembled with a little coterie of friends in The Democrat office at Anderson, a discussion arose as to whether when a name was established it was easier to secure recognition for writings. By some it was claimed that genuine merit alone brought fame, and not the name.

Mr. Riley made the assertion that he could write a poem and palm it off as having been written by Edgar Allan Poe. A wager was the result. The poem was written on the fly-leaf of an old Almsworth dictionary and first published in the Kokomo Dispatch, as having been discovered in an humble woodchopper's home and given to the world an unpublished poem of Poe's. It was reproduced all over the country and many of the best critics pronounced it genuine, before the facts were made public. It was then the now famous world-wide poem, "Leonainie," was given to the world. The dictionary in which Poe's handwriting was imitated, with the poem, is now in the hands of a Cleveland, O., gentleman, who has refused ten thousand dollars for it.

LEONAINIE.

Leonainie—angels named her;
And they took the light
Of the laughing stars and framed her
In a smile of white;
And they made her hair of gloomy
Midnight, and her eyes of bloomy
Moonshine, and they brought her
To me
In the solemn night.
In a solemn night of summer
When my heart of gloom
Blossomed up to greet the comer
Like a rose in bloom;
All forebodings that distressed me
I forgot as joy caressed me—(Lying joy that caught and pressed me
In the arms of doom!)
Only spoke the little lipser
In the angel-tongue;
Yet I, listening, heard her whisper—
"Songs are only sung
Here below that they may grieve
you—
Tales are told to deceive you.
So must Leonainie leave you
While her love is young."

Then God smiled and it was morning;
Matchless and supreme;
Heaven's glory seemed adorning
Earth with its esteem;
Every heart but mine seemed gifted
With the voice of prayer, and blessed
Where my Leonainie drifted,
From me like a dream.

The color scheme in dining room decorations were lavender and green, while pink and green were the colors used in the parlor. SUNDAY SCHOOL SUPER- INTENDENT ELEVEN YEARS

The Clearmont Ledger in last week's issue had the following about our fellow townsman, W. F. Smith: W. F. Smith, of Maryville, brother of our good friend, J. T. Smith, was in Clearmont last Thursday afternoon visiting relatives and looking after business matters.

While here Mr. Smith found time to call at the Ledger office. We found Mr. Smith to be a pleasant, Christian gentleman, and in our conversation we learned that he had been superintendent of the Methodist Sunday school in Maryville for eleven years, and during that time, had never been tardy, and only once absent, then on account of the illness of his wife. Mr. Smith has the fault, which is a good one, commencing on time if only he and the janitor are present. We think this a pretty good showing, don't you?

THE "RONEY BOYS" WERE DELIGHTFUL

The concert given by the "Roney Boys" Concert Company Wednesday night at the First Presbyterian church was heard by an audience that more than filled the church's seating capacity. It was the fourth appearance of this company in Maryville, and nearly everybody knew the character of the entertainment before they went, and that was the reason for the big audience.

Mr. Henry B. Roney, the director and manager of the company, or "father" of the boys, played all the accompaniments, announced the numbers as they were given, and during the evening introduced each boy and spoke of his special accomplishments. They behaved like veritable princes, especially during the introducing ordeal.

The quartet of voices were indescribably sweet and harmonious, while the work of the violinist and clarinetist was delightfully presented. Compositions from Bach, Handel, Haydn, Campana, Rossini, Meyerbeer, and other masters being given in a most intimate way. The singing of the soprano, a little Irish boy, was surprisingly clear and high, while the second soprano, and first and second altos supported him perfectly. This singing of the 23d Psalm was the sweetest singing imaginable.

The little violinist has just past his twelfth birthday. His name is Kurt Dieterle. His father is pastor of a German Lutheran church in New York City. He uses a Stradivarius violin that was made in Cremona, Italy, in the seventeenth century. He has studied only two years, but his performance is the work of the real artist.

We hope they will come again, and soon. They could fill the biggest house in town.

Mr. Roney addressed the State Normal students Wednesday afternoon. He surely loves and understands boys. In his more than thirty years' work with them he has trained 10,000. Sometimes as many as 800 at one time. As soon as their voices begin to change he has others ready to take their places, thus the influence of the daily practice of music goes on and on.

Frank Lyons of Old Conception was a Maryville visitor Thursday.

Alderman Dry Goods Co.

Every Day You Neglect to Buy Your New Suit or Coat Lessens the Length of its Service

Have you ever thought of this? It is worth thinking about since it is a good reason why you should make your selections at once.

Every day that passes means that you have lost one day for wearing a new garment—and it is to your advantage to get as much wear as possible out of it. And, besides, who wants to be the last to wear the new things!

This Suit Section of ours is becoming well known for its ability to correctly out-fit every woman—the child, the Miss, the grown-up and the elderly woman, are all provided for and particular attention is paid to having the garments suitable for every age. It takes a large stock to display all the different styles for the many types of women—but we have it.

If you have not bought your new suit or coat we urge you to come at once—see what we have, and learn how well provided we are to please you.

Coats from $10 to $30; suits from $10 to $40.

Alderman's Millinery at Medium Prices is Always Stylish

Most of the time in most millinery shops you will find that medium priced millinery is associated with mediocre styles. The best styles are reserved for the best hats. But here it is different. The medium priced hats are given as much care and are made as stylish as the highest marked ones—the difference being in the quality of the material.

An examination of this millinery store will show that all of

Alderman's Hats Are Smart and Original

and that the large assortments are a kaleidoscopic display that changes daily. For hats that reflect all of the approved styles you cannot better this display.

Moving Time and House Cleaning Time Should Make You Think of Our Basement

For here the best of things for the home are to be found. You will need, perhaps, rugs, carpets, lace curtains, portiers, window shades, wall paper, etc., and here is the most satisfactory place to buy them.

A complete stock of every needed thing, embracing a great variety of grades, so as to suit the needs of every purse is ready for you to make your selections. Exclusive patterns in large numbers will make your choosing easy.

Whatever is necessary—come to Alderman's basement and you will discover that your wants have been anticipated.

Wilton Rugs are Cheap

You will find this statement true if you investigate the wearing qualities of Wilton rugs. A rug that will not give satisfactory wear is high priced at any cost—but a rug that will last as long as these Wiltons is cheap even at the highest price.

Not only are Wilton rugs superior as to durability, but the patterns are the choicest made, being drawn by the best designers. One other reason why you should buy a Wilton rug is the fact that they come in more odd sizes than any other. We carry a carefully selected assortment of odd sizes and are enabled to fill most any want.

Here are the sizes and prices:

Size 10-6 by 10-6 for $50.
Size 9 by 12 for $40 to $32.50.
Size 8-3 by 10-6 for $35 and $29.
Size 6 by 9 for $25.
Size 36 by 72 inches for $6.50 and $5.50.
Size 27 by 54 inches for $4.50 and $3.50.
Size 36 by 22 inches for $2.75.
Size 18 by 36 inches for $2.25.

Axminster Rugs

In large assortments covering every price and size are carried here. The patterns are unusually good including the best Oriental, floral and medallion effects.

Size 11-3 by 12 for $30.
Size 9 by 12 for $25 to $20.
Size 9 by 10 for $20.
Size 8-3 by 10-6 for $17.50 and $16.50.
Size 36 by 72 inches for $4 and $4.50.
Size 27 by 54 inches for $2 and $2.50.
Size 18 by 36 inches for $1 and $1.25.

Size 9 by 12 for $17.50, $15.00 and $12.50.

New Lace Curtains

When you decide to buy new lace curtains also make up your mind to see this big display of ours—the chances for not finding what you want is indeed small. The size of our stock prevents us from giving a complete description of every curtain and so we have picked the most important lines to write about today.

Nottingham Lace Curtains in new designs, in Arabian and white, a wide price range, starting at 75c a pair and ending at $5.00 a pair.
Irish Point Lace Curtains, exquisitely finished, in Arabian and white, two prices, $5.00 and $6.00 a pair.
Lace Curtains, in Arabian and white, priced from $4.00 to $9.00 a pair.
Brussels Lace Curtains, in white only, price $6.00 a pair.
Novelty Lace Curtains, in Arabian and white, priced from $3.00 to $7.00 a pair.

For the Door

Fill in the empty looking door-ways with some of these pretty Portiers. You will find these styles here:
Heavy Damask Portiers, in two-toned or self-figured effects, or in solid colors, some have a solid border and others are fringed, a great variety to select from, priced from $2.50 to $15.00 a pair.
Mission Band Leather Portiers, made of natural colored leather bands, for $12.50 each; String Portiers, made of green leather, $8.50.
Rope Portiers and Mission Portiers, from $2.50 to $7.50 each.
Couch Covers at varied prices, ranging from $1.50 up to $5.00 each.

Velvet Rugs

Size 11-3 by 12 feet for $25.00.
Size 9 by 12 feet for $19.00.

The Best Carpets

Quality is as necessary in carpets, as in any other thing, if you desire long wear—they must be made right to wear well. In every bolt we carry there is certain satisfaction, insuring you against undesirable materials.

The manner of making, too, is an important point. By the use of the most modern machinery we make carpets as they should be made.

Axminster and Velvet carpets in rich Oriental and floral designs, priced at $1.25, $1 and 95c according to the grade.

Tapestry Brussels carpets, at 65c and 75c a yard. You would pay nearly as much for ingrain carpets and these tapestry brussels carpets will give at least twice the wear.

All-wool ingrain carpets, at 70c and 65c a yard.

Cotton chain ingrain carpets, wool filling, 50c a yard.

Cotton Ingrain carpets, at 35c a yard

Cottage carpets, patterns in imitation of Brussels carpets, 30c a yard.

Brenlin Window Shades

For durability Brenlin Window Shades are the best. They are prepared without chalk or filling of any kind and they will never crack or be unsightly.

The different colors will give any desired strength of light—the light colors giving a soft mellow effect and the greens and dark colors shutting out the light completely if desired.

We will gladly give estimates of the cost of Brenlin Shades.

EXCLUSIVE DESIGNS IN WALL PAPER SUITABLE FOR EVERY ROOM IN THE HOUSE. ALL PRICES.

Wilson's Dress Hooks

Even the old hooks-and-eyes can be improved. The latest and best improvement is the Wilson Dress Hook. And here are the reasons why: They are flat and invisible; they cannot slip open; they will not work loose; they can be washed and ironed repeatedly without damage. They are better than snap fasteners, because they never become so loose that they will not hold tight, or so tight in action that they pull and tear the goods. They are rust-proof.

Another advantage is that the hooking action is familiar with all women. By the card of twelve, 10c.

Lisle Togards for Women

These Lisle Togards are a stocking protector that fits snugly over the fore part of the bare foot under the stocking. They take all the wear and positively prevent the sheerest stocking from wearing through at the toe. They will not curl up nor irritate the tenderest feet.

They are washable—sanitary—durable. The pair, 10c.

Worthy of Aid.

When Sir Thomas Lipton, says the Popular Magazine, was an industrious but far from wealthy young man in this country he had an experience with a burglar. He was awakened one night by the consciousness that there was a stranger in his room.

"Who's that?" he demanded, sitting up in bed.

"Sh-h-h!" exclaimed the burglar. "Don't move, or I'll shoot. I'm looking for money!"

"Wait a minute," said Lipton calmly. "I'll get up and help you."

The Council Grove, Kan., Guard is one of the ideal papers in Kansas, and had made good long ago, we supposed, but according to its one story there are undermining agencies at work: "An elderly woman who displays a wonderful knowledge of what is going on in town was asked which of the home papers she read. 'Nathan one,' she replied. 'I just ask the milkman and the grocery boy what is goin' on and they reel it off by the yard. You see they got the advantage of the papers—they give you the news the same day it happens. More than that, they tell you what the papers aint got nerve enough to print."

BOSTON MAN KILLS HIS THREE DAUGHTERS

Turns on Gas in Room Which They Occupied.

Boston, May 4.—Meeting an old acquaintance on the street, Thomas Hagerty of Roxbury, after discussing the cold wave and a number of other topics, casually mentioned that he turned on the gas in the room occupied by his three young daughters and that they were dead.

The police found that Hagerty's story was true and placed him under arrest.

Entering the Hagerty home, the police found in a gas filled room the three little girls, cuddled together as if asleep. Except for the odor of the gas, there was nothing to give signs of the triple tragedy. The little girls, whose mother died only a few weeks ago, were Margaret, ten years; Marie, seven, and Anna, four. It is believed that the recent loss of his wife had unbalanced Hagerty's mind.

PEACE ENVOYS SHAKE HANDS

Three Days' Prolongation of Armistice Goes into Effect.

El Paso, May 4.—Shaded from the sun's heat by a cottonwood grove at the foot of the barren hill over which the insurrecto army not long ago had threatened to make its way into the city of Juarez, Francisco I. Madero, Jr., the revolutionist leader, clasped hands with Judge Carabjal, official peace envoy of the Mexican government, and talked alone for nearly an hour. They arranged the preliminary details of the first peace conference which will begin this afternoon, a three days' prolongation of the armistice having been agreed to.

An out-of-town girl, who has been the guest of a Maryville friend for the past week, experienced a little hard luck the other night while entertaining her steady also from out of town, after the family had retired.

He was about to leave and they had stepped out on the porch for the last word, leaving the door partially open. While the conversation was at its height a gust of wind shut the door, the night latch did its part, and innocence continued the conversation. Not until he had gone did the girl learn of her predicament. Numerous awakening methods were tried, but the family slept on. At last she found a ladder. With this she ascended to the window of her friends' room on the second floor, where her alarm clock efforts were successful and she was taken in.

Miss Josephine Ault of Arkoe was in Maryville Wednesday, returning home from a visit with the family of her uncle, Jonathan Groves.

HAIR WHITE AS SNOW

with

WYETH'S

As I am now 70 years old, I consider the result most remarkable. It is an agreeable and refreshing hair dressing, keeping the hair soft and glossy, without being in the least greasy or sticky.
